Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The members of the South Dakota Corrections Association see that there is a need in society to serve mankind, to safeguard lives and property, and to respect the Constitutional rights of all persons to liberty, equality and justice; and,

WHEREAS, The members of the South Dakota Corrections Association have chosen to serve mankind by diligently working to help the Offender (Juvenile and Adult) to realize a fuller potential as a dutiful citizen who can productively work and live; and,

WHEREAS, The members of the South Dakota Corrections Association are aware that failures attract more attention than successes and they still hold that such service is vital, successful, helpful and productive for society; and,

WHEREAS, The members of the South Dakota Corrections Association recognize that it is their duty to achieve the objectives and ideals of correctional work by dedication to mankind, and by striving to become knowledgeable in the necessary tools, new and old, that will aid them in the fulfillment of their duty:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of September 15-21, 1985, as in South Dakota. During this week correctional workers from all over the State will diligently apply themselves to the task of bettering their skills and tools in serving the offender, and invite the citizens of the State of South Dakota to open their hearts and understanding to the offenders' needs so that they, too, can become a part of the fundamental duty of serving mankind by helping in some small or big way in the restoration of the offender as a good citizen of the land.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixteenth Day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Five
